1. GSR/DCM Workshop-Laura J. met with the committee one hour prior to District meeting. The workshop is scheduled for September 24th (Saturday) 1-3 @ GMAC (if available). Flyers for this will be available at the July D6 meeting.
2. Corrections Chair was nominated; Doug K. Doug accepted the position. A description of the position was explained. Jane clarified the literature for the jails.
3. Special needs; no feedback with the exception of a gentleman from Hospice. Rita has a list of resources to put on the web, which will eliminate the need of a "special need committee". It was discussed and decided to handle any special needs case on an individual basis. If anyone has a special need, they should contact their GSR, or a member of D6.
4. Prudent reserve-Thomas requested a spend down. A member voiced an opinion that it was not being abused. Monthly expenses are "about" $125.00 monthly. Prudent reserve to remain where it is. The philosophy will remain the same regarding "lean". $700.00 to World Services-$300.00 to Area 34. Motion made to accept, 2nd and passed.
5. A request was made to have to have District Committee Members email reports to the secretary.

New Business:

1. Webmaster Gary-money allocated for web services. (Gary to give detail on "host & domain").
